IN THE BEGINNING, YOU HAVE NOTHING: NO KNOWLEDGE, NO POWER, NO KNOWN PURPOSE. AS YOU GROW OLDER, ALL YOU WANT IS TO BE OUT OF THE HOUSE, TO BE ON YOUR OWN. YOU TAKE FRIENDS AND FAMILY FOR GRANTED, NOT TAKING TIME TO APPRECIATE WHAT LIFE HAS TO OFFER. TALKING ABOUT YOUR GOALS, YOU ONLY MENTION YOURSELF AND HOW YOU'LL GET THERE. FOR A LONG TIME IT WILL ALWAYS BE ABOUT YOU--AND WHAT YOU CAN ACHIEVE ON YOUR OWN. AND YET . . . THROUGH TIME . . . YOU BEGIN TO CHANGE.

LET US HEAR YOUR LANCER SPIRIT ONE LAST TIME!

Dear Seniors,

By the time that you receive this book, you will have been attending school for a little over 12 years. You might be thinking that you can't wait to get out of here, pack up your bags and never look back. Never have you had as much freedom as what is about to hit you the second you graduate; however, hold on. Though the days may seem slow, life goes fast. Cherish the moments you have with your friends and family and make the most of them. These relationships are what have shaped you into who you are, and the memories you hold will stick with you until long after the time has past. For the last year, you have been preparing for your future--filling out applications for various scholarships and colleges, choosing a major, taking standardized tests, and visiting colleges to decide on the place where you will continue to make a future for yourself. Even though this is all very important, go out and live. Your senior year is a year of lasts: last homecoming, last prom, and last football game, including many more. Go out and make the most of them. These four years of high school have been some of the best and worst years of your life, but you won't ever get to relive them again or make them better. Do what you can now to spend time with the people you love the most, and you won't regret it. Don't stress and don't fret--you will become what you want to become; but for now, go out and make the most of what you can while you still are able to.

with love,

The sophomore class watches as the 2015-2016 homecoming court is announced.

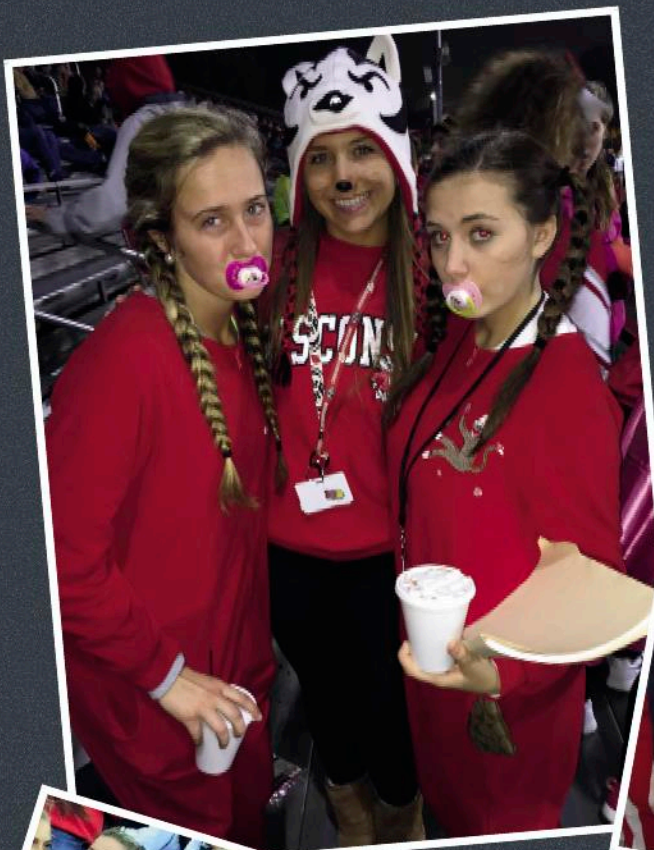

Students cheer on our North Scott Lancers Basketball team.

The freshman class gets hyped and works together as they try to win the spirit stick.

North Scott students show off their blanket with the North Scott logo on it.

Students show their support for North Scott athletics by dressing up on themed nights at sporting events.

1. Tavis Kilian grins after being selected for the homecoming court.

2. Kirsten Hale and Molly McCunn walk together on the track as they represent the juniors.

3. Baylee Drezek, Allison Stutting, Lily Holst, and Ansel Bare stand in the hallway on neon day.

4. Teachers and students line up after showing examples of what to wear for each day homecoming week.

5. The homecoming court poses together for a group photo.

Being an exchange student has been, in my opinion, and I'm sure in everyone else's, a totally unique and unforgettable experience. It's thrilling to know that you are going to a new country, meeting new people, learning a whole new culture with a new family, all alone. Being alone is one of the things we've come to appreciate a lot because being alone here has helped us to grow up and become more mature and has given us the privilege to see ourselves in the future, see what we really want to be and make for our lives.

-Viviana

CAMILLE HASCOET - FRANCE

What's your favorite part about America? My host family, this high school, and my friends.

What's your favorite part about North Scott? The theater, the people and teachers.

What do you miss most about being home? My family.

Where in America do you want to visit? Seattle and New Orleans.

What is it like to live with another family? In the beginning it was scary because you aren't sure if they are going to like you or if you will like them.

How was your experience making new friends? It was kind of scary and kind of fun to make new friends.

How is it going to feel, saying goodbye to your new friends and host family when you have to go home? It's going to be really sad because when I left to come here I knew that I would see them again, but when I leave here I don't know if I will ever see anyone here ever again.

CELIA GUARIENTO - ITALY

What's your favorite part about America? That everybody can do what they want.

What's your favorite part about North Scott? That you can choose your classes and everybody is very nice.

What do you miss most about being home? My family, my cats, and my food.

Where in America do you want to visit? California, Florida, Alaska, Colorado, New York City.

What is it like to live with another family? It's kind of different but easy to fit in.

How was your experience making new friends? It was hard to make new friends because there are different customs and I didn't speak very well.

How is it going to feel, saying goodbye to your new friends and host family when you have to go home? It's going to be extremely sad because I have a good relationship with them and I'm going to miss them very much.

VIVIANA ALDÁZ - ECUADOR

What's your favorite part about America? You have a different culture and teenagers are more independent I also like the weather.

What's your favorite part about North Scott? My friends and it is completely different from my country.

What do you miss most about being home? My family, friends, food, and customs.

Where in America do you want to visit? Alaska.

What is it like to live with another family? It's weird and nice because you have to share things with each other, and you love them like a real family.

How was your experience making new friends? It was really good, but kind of scary because I have to try to talk to people in English and it was hard.

How is it going to feel, saying goodbye to your new friends and host family when you have to go home? It's going to be worse than the day I had to leave my home country and real family, because I knew that I would see them again and this time I don't know if I will see them again.

LUIS LLANZA - SPAIN

What's your favorite part about America? New York.

What's your favorite part about North Scott? Bethany Denison.

What do you miss most about being home? Soccer all year.

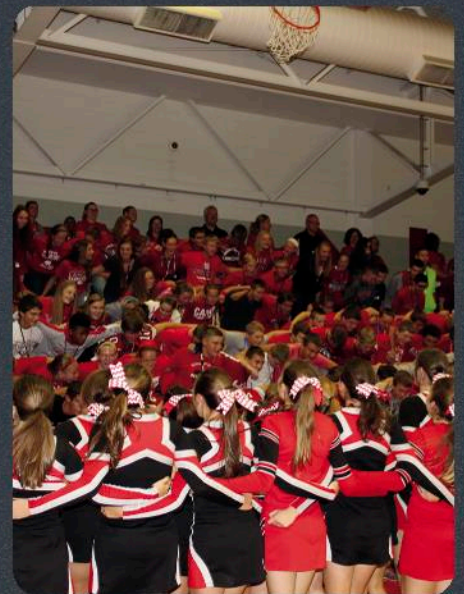

Where in America do you want to visit? New York.

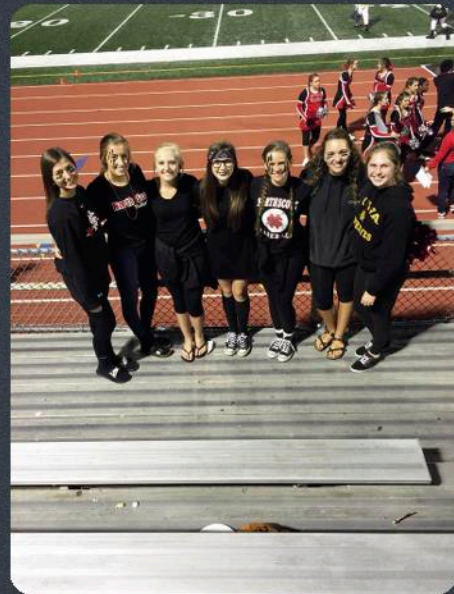

What is it like to live with another family? Relaxing. A year without your biological parents is relaxing.

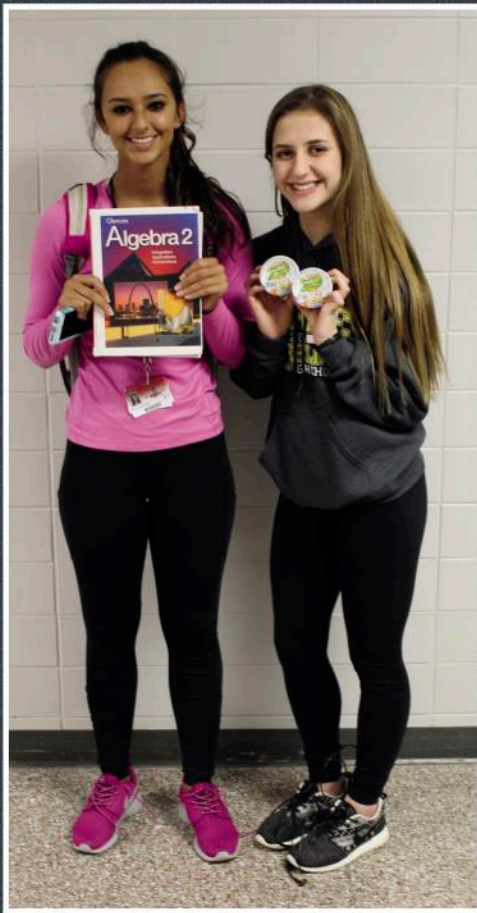

How was your experience making new friends? The first month and a half was difficult, but later was easier.

How is it going to feel, saying goodbye to your new friends and host family when you have to go home? Probably very sad, but life continues and I never will forget the people that I met.

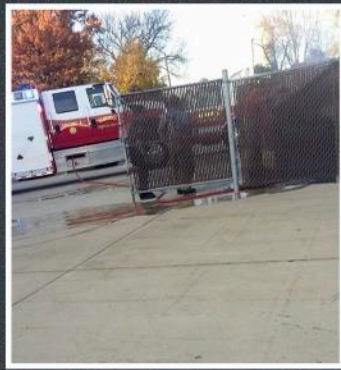

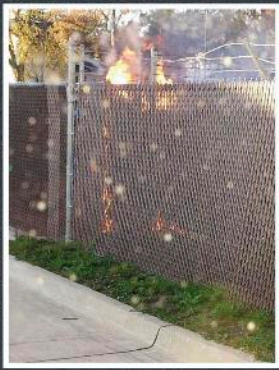

It is the Friday before the official World Pangolin Day (WPD is the third Saturday in February) and although Malak Almotairi and Brenna Meier (upper left picture) didn't entirely fit the bill for neon day, they still say "Save the pangolins!" in promotion of World Pangolin Day. Judy Kietzman and Joe Greenwood (right picture) get together and wear neon green while Chloe Calhoun (middle) goes all out with many colors.

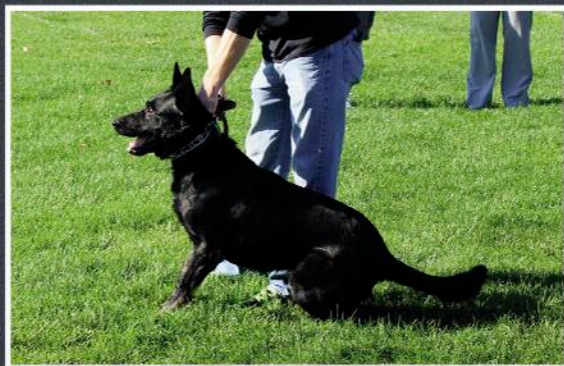

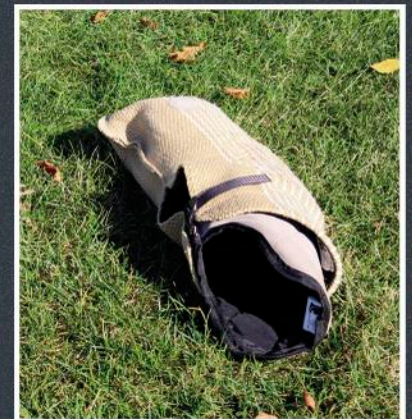

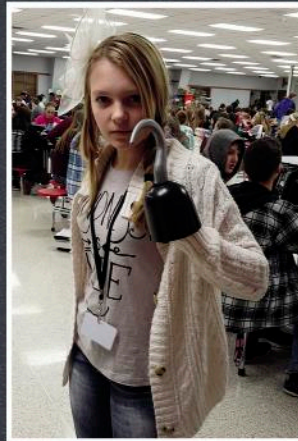

Students, teachers, staff, and even our lovely therapy dog wear neon to help promote awareness for the most trafficked mammal in the world, the pangolin. Quick facts: pangolins are harmless animals that look like scaly anteaters and live in Africa and Asia. There are eight types of pangolins and sadly all pangolins are endangered because of people who traffic them and because of lack of awareness. So spread the love and post about these little guys! Picture above from left to right: Shane Knoche, Tracy Denahy, Aaron Schwartz, and Lincoln.

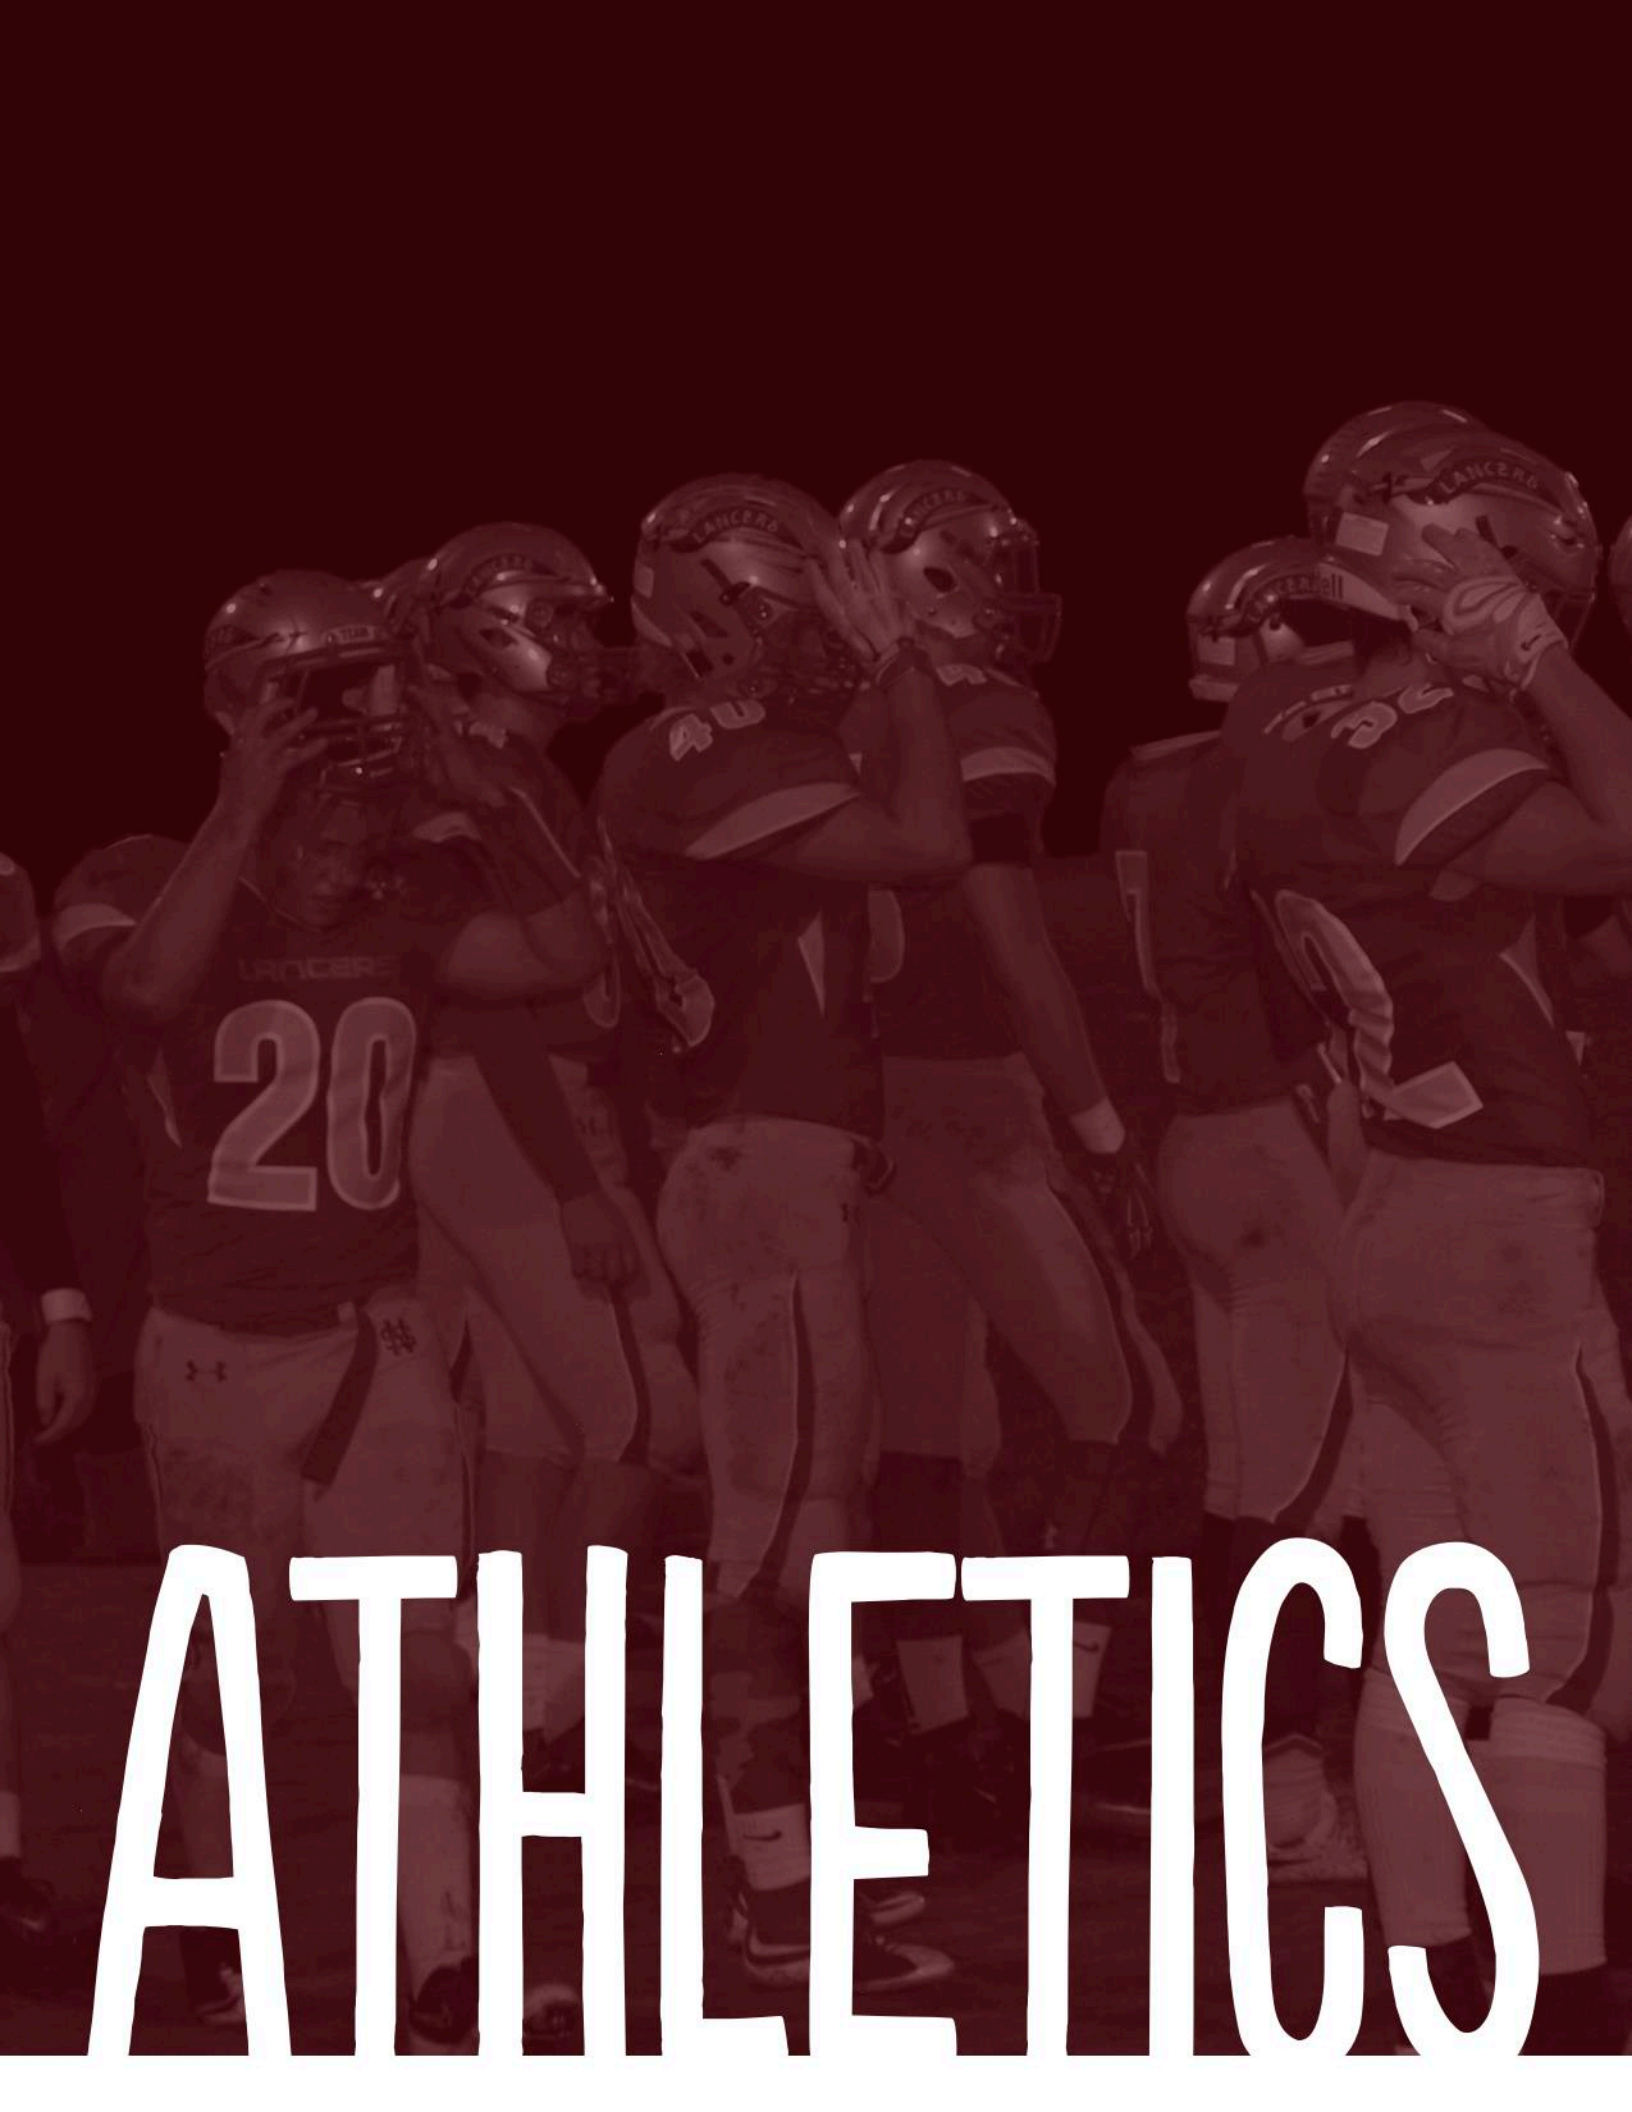

It's not every day that the school dumpster catches on fire, but when it does, the firetrucks will be there to put a stop to the flames, and Kyle Rohlf will be there with a thumbs up when it's all under control. Shane Dierickx comments that he may or may not have thrown away his mix tape in the dumpster.

One day during lunch, students had the opportunity to explore a table covered in many dress up accessories and choose different items to try on and even take pictures in! Our lovely North Scott counselors set this up to help students wind down and not feel so stressed.

A group of students watch as a policeman gives a demonstration of his narcotics dog, Spike, attacking his partner as he would attack a criminal. The top right picture shows the arm protection that a police officer wears when training attack dogs for combat.

INSPIRATIONAL QUOTES CHOSEN BY SUMMA CUM LAUDE MEMBERS:

"There are no constraints on the human mind, no walls around the human spirit, no barriers to our progress except those we ourselves erect." -- Ronald Reagan

"You can't control how smart you are, how funny you are, how good-looking you are. The one thing you can control in your life is how hard you work." -- Ian Brennan

"The more that you read,
The more things you will know.
The more that you learn,
The more places you will go."
-- Dr. Seuss

"We do not need magic to change the world, we carry all the power we need inside ourselves already: we have the power to imagine better." -- JK Rowling

"You have to think anyway, so why not think big?" -- Donald Trump

"That diploma you hold in your hands today is really just your learner's permit for the rest of the drive through life. Remember, you don't have to be smarter than the next person, all you have to do is be willing to work harder than the next person." -- Jimmy Iovine

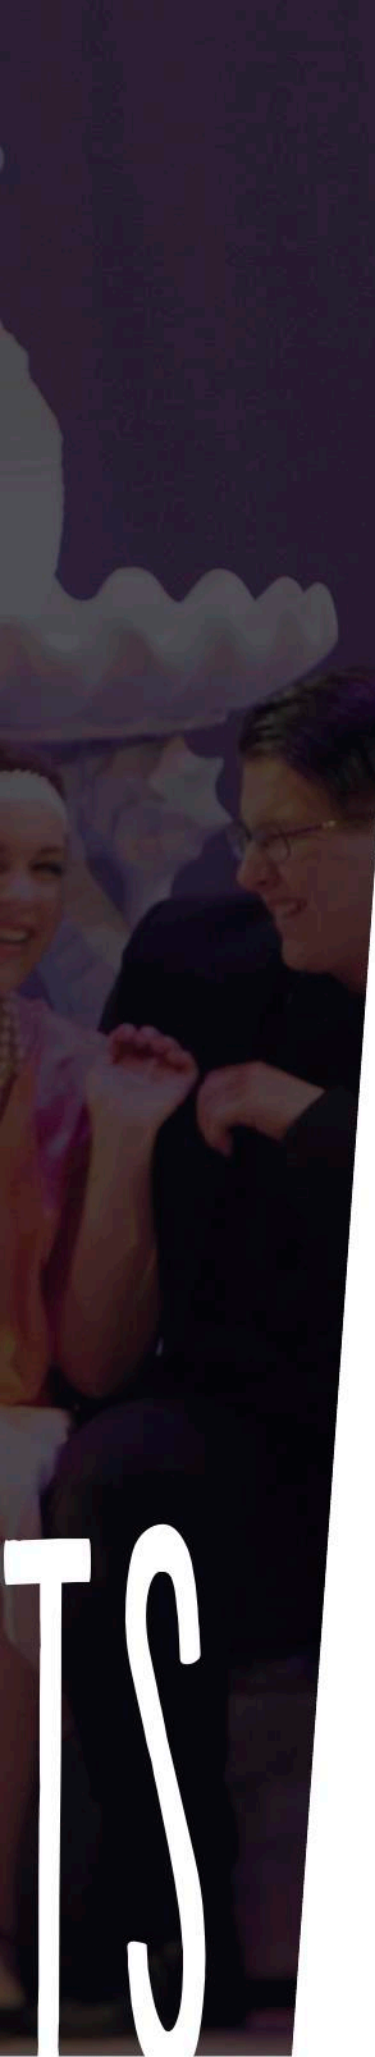

"We know what we are, but know not what we may be." -- William Shakespeare

"Never say never because limits, like fears, are often just an illusion." -- Michael Jordan

"Real courage is holding on to a still voice in your head that says, 'I must keep going.' It's that voice that says nothing is a failure if it is not final. That voice that says to you, 'Get out of bed. Keep going. I will not quit.'" --Cory Booker

Noises Off, a British farce about putting on a farce, provides humorous insight into the onstage and offstage challenges of producing a play. What's a farce? Noises Off is a superb example: a high-energy comedic romp involving highly improbable events, impeccable timing, misunderstandings, and mistaken identities.

Set in the 1920s, Nice Work If You Can Get It is the story of charming and wealthy playboy, Jimmy Winter, who meets rough female bootlegger, Billie Bendix, on the weekend of his wedding. Jimmy, who has been married three (or is it four?) times before, is preparing to marry Eileen Evergreen, a self-obsessed modern dancer. Thinking Jimmy and Eileen will be out of town, Billie and her gang hide cases of alcohol in the basement of Jimmy's Long Island mansion. But when Jimmy, his wife-to-be, and her prohibitionist family show up at the mansion for the wedding, Billie and her cohorts pose as servants, causing hijinks galore.

It's Junie B.'s first day of first grade and a lot of things have changed for her: Junie's friend Lucille doesn't want to be her best pal anymore, and on the bus, Junie B. makes friends with Herb, the new kid at school. Also, Junie has trouble reading the blackboard and her teacher, Mr. Scary, thinks she may need glasses. Throw in a friendly cafeteria lady, a kickball tournament, and a "Top-Secret Personal Beeswax Journal," and first grade has never been more exciting.

EVERYONE STARTED THEIR LIFE JOURNEY WITH NOTHING. NO KNOWLEDGE, NO POWER, AND NO KNOWN PURPOSE. THE ONLY THING WE STARTED WITH WERE THE CONNECTIONS WE HAD WITH OUR FAMILY, EVERY FRIEND WE HAVE WAS ONCE A STRANGER, EVERY BOND WE NOW HAVE WAS ONCE NONEXISTENT, AND ALL KNOWLEDGE WE HAVE WAS SOMETHING WE ACQUIRED THROUGH LIFE EXPERIENCES. AND, WE HAVE NOT DONE IT ALONE. ALONG THIS ROAD TO FREEDOM, WE HAVE MET MANY PEOPLE; SOME HAVE FADED AND SOME HAVE STAYED, BUT WE WILL ALWAYS BE CONNECTED IN SOME WAY. LIFE IS NOT ABOUT ONE OF US, LIFE IS ABOUT ALL OF US.
